

Wishing you all the merry and bright of the holiday season.

Oliver, diagnosed with feline leukaemia, was abandoned at a shelter over 10 years ago. He was snuggly, affectionate, full of life and certainly not deserving of death because of his medical condition. Ladybird rescued Oliver and gave him a second chance at the best life possible. Oliver is still living to this day and thriving in his loving forever home.

2020. What can we say? This has been a year of incredible challenges for everyone. Yet, amid it all, we've been amazed at how people have come together and done what they can to lift each other up. Many who have lost so much, still find the ability to support others in vulnerable situations. This fills our hearts.

During this time, as we speak with friends, loved ones, and supporters, we inevitably end up day dreaming about the future and what we most look forward to.

Though we were uncertain as to whether this was the best timing to launch our official Help Build the Farm campaign, we keep retuning to the things we most look forward to. The farm is this; for the animals we help, and for many in our amazing community of support. We want you all to join us on this journey to build something incredible, positive, and inspiring. Knowing that one day we can meet up on the farm and snuggle animals together. Wouldn't that be the best gift?
