WELCOME TO LADYBIRD

AUGGIE

Auggie – affectionately named after beloved Roald Dahl character “Augustus Gloop” – was rescued from Hamilton Animal Services where he ended up as a stray. No one came to claim this sweet, chonky guy, and he had a dead-end microchip, but had clearly been well-fed for a long time. In shelter Auggie seemed lethargic and disinterested in any physical activity. He didn’t even care to walk across the floor to greet his food dish. His generous tum-tum dragged a bit on the ground, and he had a gross, puss-filled sore there that the shelter was medicating him for. We were happy to get Auggie out of shelter when a loving foster home opened up. Learn more...

Gracie

Lucy and Gracie

Back in 2018, we rescued a very pregnant kitty named Callie. On March 15th, Callie gave birth to four beautiful kittens; Lucy, Georgie, Gracie and Ricky. With the help of her foster mom, Callie raised her babies like a champ, and she and the babies were all adopted. Lucy and Gracie were adopted together.

Fast forward to November 2022 when unfortunately, Lucy and Gracie's adopter's situation changed and they had to return the cats to us. Lucy and Gracie are now looking for their forever home together. Learn more...

CONGRATULATIONS, EINSTEIN!

At Ladybird we advocate for animals big and small. We've had sweet Einstein in our care since April and are so happy that he's finally found a forever home that appreciates his thirst for the pursuit of universal knowledge and penchant for theoretical physics. Congratulations, Einstein!
