RESCUE NEWS

February is a Adopt a Rabbit Month, and we've got bunnies, bunnies and more cute bunnies! Here's to a very bunny edition of Ladybird Word!

Buttons

Buttons is a sweet, sweet bunny! Very social and friendly. Like most rabbits, he isn't thrilled about being picked up, but he loves to be petted. His litter box skills are perfect. Buttons is very active and curious. He will definitely require a "bunny proofed" home, as he does tend to get into things during his exploring adventures. Buttons would like a forever home where he can be part of the family. Learn more...

Pinkerton

Pinkerton is a fabulous little bunny. He'll make a great companion for just about any home. Pinkerton is really small. Though he's tiny, he has big, big love for everyone he meets! He isn't thrilled about being picked up, but he does enjoy being petted. He's very affectionate. We believe he would likely enjoy the company of another rabbit, with proper introductions.
