RESCUE NEWS

ASPEN BEFORE

ASPEN AFTER

Aspen

Aspen came to Ladybird from Hamilton Animal Services after his owner surrendered him to the shelter. This poor, sweet guy was covered in wounds and he was infested with mites. Aspen's owner told HAS staff that their other rabbit had caused Aspen's injuries. We transferred Aspen to Spencer Creek Animal Hospital where he was seen by Dr. Stubbs, who specializes in rabbits and other small animals. Aspen's wounds were cleaned and the next morning he was neutered. Dr. Stubbs noted that the wounds were at least a week old, and some of them were filled with puss. Sadly, it seems that Aspen had been left to suffer after being so brutally attacked. Read more.

Aspen's Profile

Look what love can do...

Wow! The #BettyWhiteChallenge....
Look what love can do, indeed! The late Betty White would have been incredibly proud of humans coming together to help animal welfare causes in her memory. We cannot think of a more fitting or worthy legacy to leave, along with giving the world the gift of your talent, humour and kindness. You've shown the world that there are so many more brights lights out there.

Thank you, Betty!

Ladybird Animal Sanctuary

To the 600+ donors who chose to give to Ladybird for Betty's would-be 100th birthday (January 17th), we're beyond humbled by your outpouring of support. You helped us raise a very unexpected $22,000+! Through 2022, these funds will help us giving so many second chances to at-risk animals who need it most. Thank you for being a friend... from the bottom of our furry hearts.

Until next time, with love,
