WELCOME TO LADYBIRD

Bonnie

Clyde

Bonnie and Clyde

Bonnie and Clyde were found together as strays. They were brought to Hamilton Animal Services, but nobody came forward to claim them. They were quite a mess when they arrived. They both had long nails, dirty matted fur, rotten teeth, and Clyde has cherry eye. These poor dogs have been neglected. Clyde is not neutered, and we don't know yet if Bonnie is spayed, so there could be a chance she's pregnant. Bonnie and Clyde are now enjoying the warmth and safety of their foster home. They have a grooming appointment and a vet appointment coming up, and we'll have a better idea of their overall health once they've had a check-up.

Welcome to Ladybird, Bonnie and Clyde! We're so happy you're here!

Hemingway

"Hemy is a loving cat who can be very independent. He likes to sleep on the cat tree or the back of the couch. He can give you some sore shins from the head butts he likes to give while you are standing. He's not the most snuggly cat and doesn't enjoy being picked up, but gets into moods where he will curl up on you, especially if you have a blanket on. He likes toys on strings where he can run back and forth, and jump around. He also likes most treats we have given him, especially Temptations." - foster family

Congratulations, Captain Jack and Grampa!

In a time where small animal surrenders are overwhelming shelters, we're always thrilled when a little rescued pal finds a loving forever home. We're double thrilled for this sweet pair of cuties who were recently adopted together by a lovely family. Congrats, Captain Jack and Grampa!

Look what love can do...

The holiday season is a wrap and we'd like to send love and thanks to everyone who showed support over the holiday season to help Ladybird rescue animals in need. Whether you gave a donation, or helped fill one of our animal's stockings, or spread the word about a rescue animal looking for a forever home, every gift was truly meaningful.

We wish you all the very best things through 2023 and beyond!

Until next time, with love,

Lisa Winn, Janine Stoll and Melissa McClelland
