Welcome to Ladybird!

Gwen

Gwen's babies

Humane Society of Durham Region reached out to us for help when they received a hedgehog that had been abandoned by her owner. We were happy to take this prickly little girl in. Soon after coming into Ladybird's care, Gwen gave birth! We had no idea she was pregnant, but she had four babies during the night. Quite a surprise for her foster mom to wake up to. Unfortunately, one of the babies didn't make it, but the other three are doing well so far. Gwen is a VERY protective mom, and she's telling off everyone who comes near her babies. Understandable after everything she has been through. She just wants to keep her babies safe. Welcome to Ladybird, hedgegie babies! Learn more...

Success Stories

Jones came to Hamilton Animal Services as a stray. This cute, playful boy was waiting at shelter for quite a while, and when it was posted that he was at-risk of euthanasia due to capacity issues, Ladybird worked quickly to find a foster home to help out. We were happy to give Jones a second chance. It didn't take long for a wonderful adopter to offer him a loving home. We're so happy for you, Jones!
