RESCUE NEWS

Adorable Rat Rescue

Toronto Animal Services reached out to us when they received a large number of rats. We were able to take in six girls who we named Maleficent, Ursula, Cruella de Vil, Yzma, Lady Tremaine, and Madam Mim. It's possible some of the girls are pregnant. We're almost certain Maleficent is, but it will be a wait-and-see for the others. These little lovelies have a vet appointment coming up for health and pregnancy checks, and we'll have an update for you then. Welcome to Ladybird, wee rats! We're so happy you're here!

FOSTER NEWS

Penelope

Penelope, who has been with Ladybird for a year now, came into Hamilton Animal Services as a "stray." This chonky bunny was definitely not a stray. More than likely she was abandoned outdoors by her owners when they no longer wanted her. Behaviourally, Penelope was not doing well in the shelter, so Hamilton Animal Services reached out to us for help. We got Penelope out of the shelter and got her in to see Dr. Davis at Virgil Animal Clinic. Read more

IN MEMORY

Rest well, sweet Mitsou...

"I want to tell you the story of my friend Mitsou. Two weeks ago she passed away and left a little paw print space in my heart. Her time with me was brief, but special." Read more
